Who is the Holy Spirit and how can you walk in His power? Jesus walked in the power of the Holy Spirit and declared His disciples would do even greater works (Luke 4:14, John 14:12).

Today, God's power can still be released in and through Christians who will meet the Holy Spirit on His terms. In this book, the author introduces the ministry of the Holy Spirit, how His power can transform us and why we should know Him in all His fullness, as an indwelling Person. Drawing from the powerful experiences of Rees Howells, Evan Roberts and many other influential servants of the Lord Jesus Christ, the author unveils the secrets of going deeper with God, and how to grow beyond being blessed by the Holy Spirit, to be filled with the fullness of God (Ephesians 3:19). Paul Backholer is a British broadcaster and the founder of ByFaith Media (www.ByFaith.org). He is the director of ByFaith TV which airs on multiple platforms around the world and is the producer of several Christian documentaries. Paul is the author of Heaven: A Journey to Paradise, How Christianity Made the Modern World, The Exodus Evidence and The Ark of the Covenant – Investigating the Ten Leading Claims. Paul studied in a British Bible college in the 1990s and has travelled to over forty nations on Christian endeavours.

The Holy Spirit was sent to lead and guide believers in every area of their lives, their finances, marriages, careers, businesses, etc. When Christians give the Holy Spirit complete control of their lives and allow him to do what he was sent to do, they will be able to avoid the pitfalls of the enemy. When you are led by the Spirit, you can mistake-proof your life! Many believers are not experiencing the power and privilege of being led by the Holy Spirit on a daily basis. He is the underutilized power source in the lives of believers. Jesus told his disciples before and after his resurrection that he was going back to his Father and would send back the Holy Spirit. He knew believers could not live a victorious Christian life without the help of the Holy Spirit. Jesus sent believers the ultimate power source!

CHRISTIANS MUST KNOW and communicate with the Holy Spirit to fully understand the Christian experience. God gave Christians his Spirit to give them the power and teach them the wisdom and understanding so they can fully understand what God wants them to know. God has already given everyone the gifts for an abundant life for this journey on earth and eternity. In order for you to receive these gifts, you must have communication with the Holy Spirit. God declared three thousand years ago that everyone in this age could receive his Spirit. The Holy Spirit is received by first accepting Jesus as your Savior. He then asks the Father to send the Holy Spirit to you for your personal counselor for spiritual and personal growth. Jesus describes the Holy Spirit as your teacher, counselor, adviser, advocate, the living water, and many other things. He will live in you 24-7 to help you. He has a schedule for your life. This means when it is time for you to receive the gifts God has planned he will prepare you to receive them. You probably do not know that he has gifts like education and careers. God has a career for you already planned, but you must follow the plan. Do not say I know all this. That is a sure prescription for failure. You will never know it all. You will learn many things from this book. The Holy Spirit asked me to write this book to tell you what he wants you to know. He wants you to study your Bible with the Holy Spirit giving you understanding of all things.

Rom. 8:12-14 (9-11) ; Phil. 2:12-13 (12-13).

For sixty some odd years, I was not aware of the potential power of the Holy Spirit in my life. What a change when I let the Holy Spirit have his way in my life. He truly is my advocate, my comforter, and my helper. I almost titled this book Peace, It's a Holy Spirit Thing, You Wouldn't Understand because I spent all those years not understanding. During the last five months of 2017, I had four surgeries. I knew when I would wake up I would have my wife by my side, or I would be in heaven. What a fantastic feeling to know it would be a win-win situation regardless of the outcome. To have the supernatural power of the Trinity in your life is the best situation you can have during your time on the earth.

We, as children of God, can stay holy and live in this world and still be committed to God. That's why we need the Holy Spirit to lead and guide us. But it is important that we understand when he leads and guides, we must submit to Him and follow instruction. Some people ask, "How do I know when it is God and not Satan?" Satan does not want us to do anything that's going to help us win for God. When God speaks, it is usually a soft voice. God is going to push us to break our flesh and yield more to Him. When we do this, it becomes a way of life for us. And hearing God's voice will not be a stranger but a normal voice for us.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and ... the Holy Spirit. We pray in the name of all three, but how often do we live with an awareness of only the first two? As Jesus ascended into heaven, He promised to send the Holy Spirit—the Helper—so that we could be true and living witnesses for Christ. Unfortunately, today's church has admired the gift but neglected to open it. Breakthrough author Francis Chan rips away paper and bows to get at the true source of the church's power—the Holy Spirit. Chan contends that we've ignored the Spirit for far too long, and we are reaping the disastrous results. Thorough scriptural support and compelling narrative form Chan's invitation to stop and remember the One we've forgotten, the Spirit of the living God.

Precocious and sometimes marginalized Klaus Bockmuehl's insights regarding the Spirit's agency in Christian Ethics, and therefore in our daily Christian experiences, have renewed import, now. This is an exceptional book, it introduces us for the first time to a much-neglected thinker. It also equips us with an understanding of how the Church can live ethically in power, through its relationship with the Father. In both respects it has much to offer its reader and the wider contemporary church.

I am writing this book to help Christians and all Believers to trust in God, support them in their efforts to learn to live a Spirit-filled life, and help to trust God in everything and help people to acknowledge the everyday work of Mr. Holy Spirit. Knowing God properly can help everyday lives. This book is about the people we love and the lies that we tell; the changes we bear, and the grief. Ultimately, it shows us not only how we lose ourselves but how we might find ourselves, too. This book will help you the reader to establish the Personality of the Spirit of God through revelation. You will understand the ways of God through His Spirit whom I called 'Mr. Holy Spirit'. I am hoping for you to have your first encounter with God through the reading of this book, and that you would thereby be able for the very first time in your life, to see Mr. Holy Spirit, His Work, His Personal Duties among Believers and His Presence in the Church of Christ in our era. In this book you'll find who Mr. Holy Spirit is, and how we see Him in our lives. You will see His Personality, His Divinity, the Symbols that describe Him, His work before the faithful Pentecost day, His work in the Old and New Testament period, His work in the Gospels, His work in Jesus Christ and finally, His inspiration of the Bible.

The Holy Spirit is your constant companion in this world. It is He who walks with you and helps you too how live a Citizen of The Kingdom of God. This book endeavours to give you a greater understanding of the personal role of The Holy Spirit in your life. So that you will understand the necessity of a personal relationship with Him, if you want to live as Jesus requires you to live.

"In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed" (Mark 1:35). Jesus taught by his words and actions. He went by himself to pray when he was tired, when faced with upcoming trying events, or when he just wanted to be alone in the presence of his Lord. He gave us guidance about what to pray, how to pray, and why to pray, and was very familiar with the Hebrew Scriptures. Thus, if we want to become Jesus' disciple we should follow his model and invest time and emotional energy into prayer, Bible study, and reflection. Nourishment For The Spiritual Pilgrimage provides an aid for those who want to participate in the spiritual pilgrimage of becoming a lifelong disciple of Jesus Christ. It offers insight and support for those who daily want to turn their hearts, souls, and minds to God's will in their lives, as they strive to help in bringing about God's kingdom in this present time. There are countless other devotionals, but hopefully this can offer something that many of the others may not, a specific focus on the concept of discipleship.

When I was pastoring a church in Canada, one of the members came to me, asking about the ministry of the Holy Spirit. He said that he had heard a lot of teaching about the Trinity, explanations about God the Father and God the Son (Jesus Christ), but very little about the Holy Spirit. When the subject of the Holy Spirit came up, the teaching was vague and very limited. As a result, he didn't understand what the Holy Spirit did. He knew that the Holy Spirit was part of the Trinity and was more or less God, but what did the Holy Spirit do? He didn't have the slightest idea. The purpose of this book is not to write a thesis on the doctrine of the Holy Spirit. I want it to be a practical book explaining the ministry of the Holy Spirit in our lives in such a way that He is no longer seen as a mysterious or mystical "force" and becomes known as a person (God) acting in and guiding our lives in a way that we can understand. The Holy Spirit is God, the third person of the Trinity. We all (at least the born-again believer in Christ should) know that God the Father is seated on His throne in Heaven and controls everything that happens in the universe. We know that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born in Bethlehem of Judea, grew up, walked on this earth, and died on the cross of Calvary in our place for our sins, and today is seated at the right hand of the Father, interceding for us. Today He is our advocate before the Father. And the Holy Spirit? Today I believe that the ignorance about the Holy Spirit is partially the fault of us, as pastors, who have not taught what we know to be our responsibility: teaching what the Bible says about the ministries of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer. I hope to change this problem with this book!

Now more than ever the body of Christ must mature in the ways of the Spirit to fulfill God's plan for His kingdom as the clock ticks steadily toward the return of Jesus Christ. The only way we will fulfill the Great Commission Jesus left us is to have both the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit and His power fully operating in our lives. The problem is most believers don't know the difference between the two or how to walk in the fullness of all God has called us to do. In some ways, we've had things backwards and short-circuited God's best. In Overflowing with the Holy Spirit, author Pat Harrison teaches about the dual role of the Holy Spirit in your life—to establish you first in the indwelling and then in the outpouring. The working of the Holy Spirit within matures you in holiness and oneness with Jesus. Then the outpouring comes upon you with power, ability, efficiency, and might to bless others. Understanding the two intertwined facets will help you walk in the fullness of both—until you're overflowing with the Spirit in everyday life. Pat shares: Learning the ways of the Spirit From Soulful to Selfless How to walk in holiness How to walk in power and might Recognize the day
